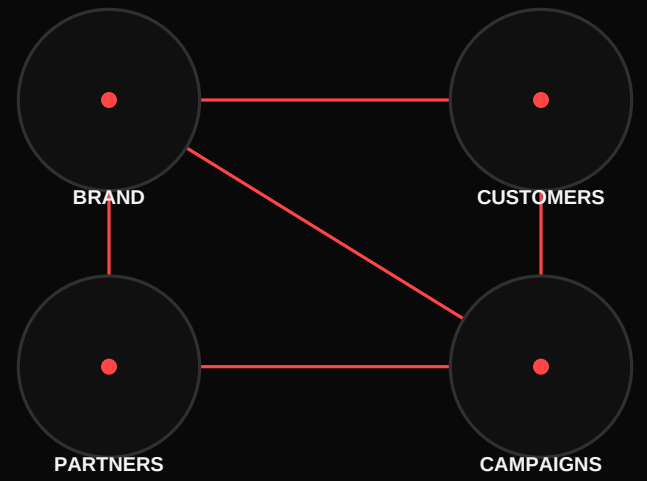
Building a Consistent Pan-India Brand for NoBroker Loans

Brand development, integrated campaign execution and institutional communications across a distributed lending ecosystem.

SENIOR BRAND MANAGER

ONE BRAND / MULTIPLE TOUCHPOINTS



Consistency without losing relevance for each audience.

One brand. Multiple audiences. One lending ecosystem.

The work connects customer-facing campaigns, institutional partnerships and on-ground engagement.

01 THE ENVIRONMENT

NoBroker Loans operates at the intersection of housing finance, lending institutions and a large distribution ecosystem.

02 THE MARKETING NEED

Coordinate different propositions and communication needs while preserving a recognisable, consistent brand.

03 THE ROLE

Connect brand development, integrated marketing communications and campaign execution with business priorities.

THE OPERATING CHALLENGE

Build consistency across geography, channel and stakeholder - not just across advertisements.

Consistency across a distributed lending ecosystem

Different audiences and objectives required distinct communication approaches under one larger brand.

01 BRAND RECOGNITION

Develop a recognisable identity across pan-India touchpoints.

02 MULTIPLE CAMPAIGN NEEDS

Support home-loan acquisition, balance transfer and brand-building initiatives.

03 PARTNER COMPLEXITY

Communicate through banking and distribution partners while respecting institution-specific branding.

04 BUSINESS ALIGNMENT

Connect creative and channel execution with wider business requirements.

DESIGN PRINCIPLE

Consistency without flattening audience relevance.

Three connected pillars

The approach connects brand strategy to business priorities through communication that is consistent, coordinated and audience-aware.

01

BRAND DEVELOPMENT

Develop a consistent pan-India brand identity and strengthen communication across customer-facing and partner-facing touchpoints.

02

INTEGRATED MARKETING COMMS

Bring ATL, BTL, digital and offline communication together to support different stages of the customer journey.

03

PARTNER & INSTITUTIONAL COMMS

Make product information, campaigns and operational updates clearer for the distribution ecosystem.

THE CONNECTIVE TISSUE

Campaign planning / creative development / channel execution / stakeholder coordination

Strategy translated into campaigns and communications

Three workstreams connected brand-building with customer acquisition and partner engagement.

01 / PAN-INDIA BTL

NB Heroes

Launched NB Heroes as a below-the-line campaign to extend brand communication beyond conventional digital advertising.

BRAND VISIBILITY | ON-GROUND | PAN-INDIA

Part of the broader effort to strengthen brand visibility and engagement across the lending ecosystem.

02 / ATL CAMPAIGNS

Home Loan and Balance Transfer campaigns executed across online and offline channels to communicate relevant lending propositions.

03 / PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS

Bank-specific creative adaptation, product communication, partner updates and operational messaging, while maintaining each institution’s branding requirements.

One coordinated system across touchpoints

The work spans campaign planning through execution, aligning brand objectives with business requirements.

01

PLAN

Align campaign priorities and communication needs.

02

ADAPT

Shape messages and creative for the audience and institution.

03

COORDINATE

Work across stakeholders, channels and business functions.

04

EXECUTE

Deliver online, offline and partner-facing communication.

GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLE

Keep the brand system recognisable while adapting creative to the requirements of customers, banking institutions and distribution partners.

Marketing within a wider growth trajectory

The business context demonstrates the scale of the distribution ecosystem in which brand and partner communications operate.
